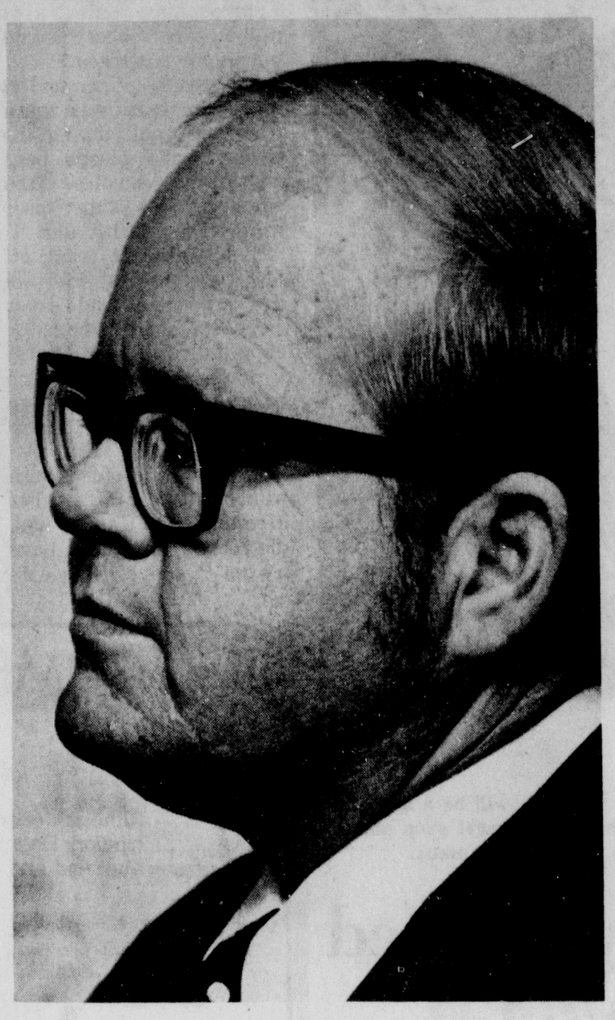
VOL. 87—NO. 37 PLANO, TEXAS, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1974 TEN CENTS



Resignations and reappointments were the order of business Monday night during a special meeting of the city council. Members first accepted the resignation of Councilman John Waddell and then Doug Herrin (above right) resigned from the Planning and Zoning Commission to be reappointed to the City Council. Jack Hatchell's (right) resignation as chairman of the Citizens Traffic Safety Support Commission followed and he was then appointed to the Planning and Zoning Commission. An engineering consultant with Pinnell-Anderson-Wilshire and Assoc., Hatchell lives at 2741 Westridge Dr. He and his wife Pat have two daughters, Amy and Beth. Herrin and his wife Helen also have two children, both boys, Dee and Derek. A resident of Plano for nine years, Herrin is self-employed as president of Herrin & Co., and as vice president of Professional Electric Products. "I have no interest in Plano other than to make it a nice place to live," he said after his installation. Mayor Norman Whitsitt (above left) administered the oath of office to both Herrin and Hatchell. Hatchell's replacement has not been named. (Staff photo by Mike Newman).

Commissioners Select Kunkle

Temporary Sheriff

BY JACK HARKRIDER

Collin County has a new sheriff, if only temporarily, but for a time Monday afternoon, it looked as though the county would be without a law enforcement arm overnight.

Jerry Kunkle, chief deputy, was named by the Collin County Commissioners Court to take the place of Sheriff George Smith of Plano, who resigned Monday morning to take a $30,000 a year security job in Houston.

Kunkle was confirmed by a 3-0 vote, but only until interviews could be conducted and a permanent replacement named by the commissioners Raymond Jenkins, Odell Rushing and Bailey Dickerson, but it was only after some discussion that Dickerson changed his vote from "no" to "yes."

When Smith officially resigned, by letter, Monday morning, he commented in his letter that he was leaving Kunkle in charge until the commissioners appointed a successor.

However, Dickerson objected to the idea that afternoon, stating that he didn't think Kunkle should be favored over others in the department.

"I think there's others just as qualified down there in the Sheriff's Dept.," he stated.

With Commissioner Carl Marion absent from the afternoon session, Dickerson's stand made the vote count 2-1 in favor of Kunkle being Smith's temporary replacement. The fourth member of the court, County Judge W.G. (Bill) Proctor, refused to vote either way on the matter and attempted to postpone the decision until 9:30 a.m. Tuesday.

After discussion among themselves and with members of the audience, Dickerson then decided to go along with the move, so that "the county won't be without any law enforcement. I wouldn't want that," he explained.

During the morning portion of the meeting, Judge Proctor read Smith's letter of resignation to the audience, which included representatives of the major metropolitan radio and television stations and newspapers, as well as county newspapers.

In his brief, two-paragraph letter, Smith commented that he plans to make only one news release and that it would come after a new sheriff is appointed.

"That release will establish the facts which occurred prior to the departure of Lawrence Selman from the Sheriff's Department earlier this year," the letter stated. "I think the public should be made aware of his activities while serving as a Deputy Sheriff."

Selman is Candidate

Selman is one of 13 candidates who have submitted applications to the commissioners court for consideration as the county's next sheriff, serving the remaining two years of the term.

Also submitting his application was Tom Montgomery, Smith's predecessor who was indicted by a Dallas County grand jury for criminal misuse of county equipment. However, the indictment was later dropped, due to a legal technicality.

Others include Kunkle; former Plano Police Chief J.B. Toler; Pete Barnes, juvenile officer for the Plano area; Justice of the Peace Bobby King of Wylie, Wilford Williams, Jerry Burton, Jug Warren, C.W. Williams, Lee Davidson, John Justice and Willis Akin.

Interviews are expected to begin soon and it appears doubtful that a final decision can be made within the next week.

Since Smith chose to resign by letter and not in person, the matter took only a short time on the commissioner's Monday morning agenda. The most discussed item, then, was fireants.

Appearing on an emergency item, County Agent James Risinger, Planoite John Wells of Wells Bros. Store and Al Borman of the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture told commissioners that a serious infestitation of fireants exists in the southwest portion of Collin County, in and around western Plano.

After discussion on the matter, Judge Proctor asked Wells to form a committee to inform citizens of the problem and ask their cooperation in allowing the government to spray the infested areas from the air with a Mirex fireant bait.

Wells agreed to help coordinate the effort and said he would approach the councils in the respective cities to seek their help and cooperation.

Tennis-Swim Clubs Viewed

Existing Ordinances to be Used For Control

BY PAM TROBOY
Staff Writer

Future private tennis and swim clubs should be handled under existing ordinances, the Planning and Zoning Commission decided Monday.

After reviewing background on such clubs in other cities, commissioners agreed that any future requests can be handled as planned development recreation centers.

Both Vance Maultsby and Dick Hickman expressed concern about the possibility of such clubs being constructed in existing residential neighborhoods.

"I'm strictly opposed to tennis and swim clubs in existing residential areas," Maultsby said. "But wherever they are built, we need more than just controls on the physical building. We need environmental controls on such things as lighting and noise and restrictions are needed to regulate how the property is disposed of if the business fails."

Commissioners also approved the final plat and site plan for the first phase of Dicker Center, a 31-acre office complex on the southeast corner of the intersection of Coit Rd. and FM 544. The first phase to be constructed will be five office buildings of about 9,400 square feet each.

The first 10 acres of the development were approved with the stipulation that a berme be built adjacent to residential zoning on the east. A similar berme on the south will be constructed before the rest of the property is developed.

The final plat of Parker Plaza West, Tract IV of Audubon Place Shopping Center, was also approved by the commissioners. John K. Pearcy Co. will be required to construct a temporary drive north of the proposed retail building and the commission eliminated an access point to Parker Rd.

The commission also held a work session on 215 acres east of Preston Rd. and north of FM 544. John Mason, representing the developer, Shindeer-Cummings, requested 45.3 acres of planned development retail, 43.5 acres of MF-2 apartments, 82 acres of SF-3 residential and 44.7 acres of SF-2 residential.

Caroline Praised

NEW YORK (UPI) — Caroline Kennedy, despite a series of traumatic events in her younger years, has become "an extremely nice, extremely intelligent young woman who only wants to lead a normal life," says an article in McCall's magazine.

Caroline, 17, worked as an unpaid intern last summer for her uncle, Sen. Edward Kennedy.

"If you didn't know who she was, you couldn't tell," a Kennedy staff member said in the article. "No one made a particular fuss over her ... she did what everyone else did, taking part in all programs."

Kennedy was equally impressed, saying "she was a delight to have in the office. She was willing to do any job assigned to her, no matter how unglamorous."

Quints' Progress

BALTIMORE (UPI) — The Rohrer quintuplets have added from a half to one and a half ounces in extra weight, and doctors hope to have all but one on three hour feedings today.

Russell and Sandra switched from feedings every two hours to every three hours last weekend and doctors said they hoped to put Belinda and Jennifer on the extended feedings today.

Michelle, who was returned to intravenous feedings last week after she couldn't digest her milk formula, was making good progress this week with a combination of intravenous feeding and increasing amounts of milk formula every two hours.

"They're all fine, there are no problems," said the quints' doctor. "I'm pleased with Michelle's progress. She has to work her way back up."

Insult to Injury

OLDHAM, England (UPI) — A magistrate sentenced Junior Burton, 23, to a month in jail Monday for stealing a car so he could get to court in time to face car theft charges.

"He took the car because he had no other means of getting to court," defense attorney John Burton told the magistrate.

Modest Admission

SHEPWAY, England (UPI) — Damon Robinson says he is not upset about being fired as a garbage truck driver for the local council.

On Monday last week he drove his truck into a ditch. On Wednesday he ran it into a brick wall. On Thursday the clutch on his truck burned out. On Friday he tipped the truck over in a country lane.

"I don't feel bad about them kicking me out," said Damon, a former British Army tank driver. "I don't think I'm a good driver any more."

Murder Site

House Odor Remains

Ridgeway residents are to meet with City Manager David Griffin this week to request the city's help in eliminating a possible health hazard at the site of a triple murder.

The home at 2909 Ridgeway was declared a public health hazard by the city council on Sept. 16, after three decomposed bodies were found in the residence. The council arranged for the extermination and fumigation of the house and ordered the destruction of any property necessary to protect the health of area residents.

Surrounding neighbors are not satisfied with the results of the fumigation, however. Mrs. Judy Hulsey, a next-door neighbor, told the Daily Star-Courier that the odor from the house is "still sickening" and that flies from the house swarm over the neighborhood.

She and ten other homeowners in the area met with Justice of the Peace C.J. Prashaw this weekend and asked his help to eliminate the problem.

The residents also told Prashaw that motorists are still driving up and down the street to look at the home and that the sightseers are a danger to children.

Mrs. Hulsey said Prashaw has arranged the meeting with Griffin and added that she and her neighbors are hopeful that something can be done about the home.

For Democrats

Barbecue Successful

Over 300 persons were entertained by the Wells Bros. Farm Store Band, while the "Democrats for Collin County" served hot dogs and beans and the Democratic candidates provided speeches at the "Poor Man's Barbeque" held on Saturday at Lemontree near Allen.

Attorney Roland Boyd of McKinney introduced Robert Strauss and urged support of the courthouse bond election. Strauss, chairman of the National Democratic party, was the keynote speaker and urged Collin County Democrats to turn out the vote on November 5, and to keep active to insure a Democrat as President in 1976.

Strauss' birthday was Saturday, and Collin County Democrats presented him with a huge birthday cake and other presents.

Congressman Ray Roberts of McKinney, whose district covers northern Collin County, also urged Democrats to get out the vote and to help reverse the state of our economy.

A.B. (Bus) Dabney of Forest Grove, Democratic nominee for Collin County Judge, dished up beans in the serving line, while State Representative Bob Hendricks of McKinney served the chili for the hot dogs. W.C. (Bay) Sellers of Farmersville, candidate for Precinct 2 County Commissioner, J.W. Carpenter Jr. of Frisco, candidate for Precinct 4 County Commissioner, and Howard Shapiro of Plano, candidate for Justice of the Peace, also helped to get the people fed.

Also in attendance was Collin County Democratic Chairman Early B. Milstead and District 2 Delegate to the National Democratic Mini-Convention, Juanita Mays of Greenville.

Harold Collum of Dallas, Democratic nominee for Third Congressional District, arrived late, but told a crowd of workers and others the inflation spiral we are in can best be remedied by sending Democrats to office.

Mrs. Frances B. Gibson of Dallas won the main door prize of a set of dishes. Also twelve small "donkeys" were given as door prizes.

James Sides, president of Democrats for Collin County, Plano Chapter introduced the other candidates and thanked R.H. Stroman, chairman of the barbeque, for his efforts in staging the event.

The newly formed Democratic Club has been active since their formation in June. The club has registered 2000 new voters, participated in parades and fairs, and had a reception for Governor Briscoe, in addition to the Barbeque.

The new organization presently boasts 160 members and officers are James Sides of 2616 Eucalyptus in Plano, President; Roger Gibson of 300 Ridgebriar in Richardson, vice president; Linda McCormack of 400 Ridgeview in Richardson, secretary, and Andrea Faucett of 3016 Robin in Plano, treasurer.

Displaying their winning posters in the Shepard Elementary School pre-Halloween poster contest are (left to right) Michael Carpenter, Mark Moore, Peter Carpenter, Saboreh Anz and Scott Cameron. Special attractions at the Carnival, which will be held on Saturday evening, will be a dunking booth, a haunted house, a cake walk, a sweet shop and a sloppy joe dinner. Near-Perfect Robbery Found

Lack of Air is Only Flaw in Ingenious Plan

CHICAGO (UPI) — Had it not been for a lack of air in a vault at an Armored Express Corp. office, a $1 million-plus robbery might have gone unnoticed.

Between $1 million and $3 million in cash was taken from the vault during the weekend and plastic bags containing gasoline and equipped with time fuses were placed in the vault.

The firebombs went off Monday morning, but the fire burned itself out because of the lack of air in the 15-by-20-foot vault, said Lt. Edward Neville of the police bomb and arson squad.

"Only two of the 13 bags ignited," Neville said.

"They just couldn't burn without air," said another investigator. "If they had, the robbery might not have been discovered. Investigators would think the money was destroyed in the fire."

The loss was discovered after a smoke detector alarm sounded early Monday and firemen arrived at the scene. They found the vault filled with smoke, but the fire had burned itself out.

Officials of Armored Express, a division of Purolator Security Inc., today were attempting to determine the extent of the loss, estimated at between $1 and $3 million.

"We know they got a good $1 million, probably more — maybe a lot more —but we won't know exactly how much until Tuesday," a police spokesman said.

The FBI said it was attempting to find grounds for entering the investigation.

Police theorized that two bombings in the North Side area where the Armored Express Office is located may have been carried out in order to divert police from the robber.

The two bombings —one in a building where Cook County Board President George Dunne makes his home and the other at a massage parlor —occurred early Sunday and early Monday.

Police said they may have been set to cover the robbers' entrance or exit from the express office.

Money collected by Armored Epress trucks was being stored in the office vault during the weekend for delivery to banks, currency exchangs and businesses Monday.

The money in the vault included $1.3 million collected from suburban Hawthorne Park racetrack Saturday.

Investigators said the robbery apparently was the work of sophisticated professional thieves, but the thieves also may have had "inside" help.

Sullivan's Will

NEW YORK (UPI) — Ed Sullivan, who died Oct. 13 of cancer, left the bulk of his $450,000 estate to his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeeth S. Precht of Scarsdale, N.Y.

Sullivan's 19-page will, filed for probate Monday, leaves $10,000 to Carmine Santullo, a friend, and $2,500 each to two sisters, Mrs. Francis Hagele and Mrs. Mercedes Murphy, both of Port Chester, N.Y.

In the will drawn up March 27, 1973, the television host and Broadway columnist said he was leaving nothing to charity because he had made contributions during his lifetime.

The exact value of the estate is unknown pending an accounting.

Bank Experiment

NEW YORK (UPI) — What would the average New Yorker do if he saw an electric sign outside a bank flashing the warning "Robbery in Progress"?

That's what Chemical Bank hopes to find out.

Chembank Monday unveiled its "Hold-up Alert —Local Transmission" (HALT), a new alarm system which utilizes an exterior flashing sign to alert passersbys if a robbery is taking place.

A spokesman for the bank said the exterior signs, which will be used at the bank's branch offices, can be activated from various observation points in the bank.

Inside the bank, staff members also will be alerted by special devices if any teller station is being robbed, the spokesman said, and, as in the past, the alarm system will trigger the usual silent alarm network.

Spock's Advice

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Dr. Benjamin Spock, an authority on child care for four decades, says American society should provide parents with an incentive to stay home and take care of their children.

"When work is an economic necessity," Spock said, "the state should pay whoever has to stay home and care for the children."

Spock, 71, says he favored a state-supported environment for parents, which he called "a very pleasant gathering place, a luxurious club."

He said parents could care for their children, talk with people their own age and participate in hobbies, extension courses and discussions in literature and art.

This, he told the American Academy of Pediatrics Monday, would release the mother or father from the feeling of being trapped in the home.

Caution Seen

TUBAC, Ariz. (UPI) — Political caution marked the conversations on Monday between Ford and Mexican President Luis Echeverria. Ford told the Mexican leader that the U.S. stance toward Cuba remains unchanged. Echeverria, in his turn, informed Ford that the U.S. will receive no special benefits from the big new oil strikes in his country.

School Dynamited In Book Violence

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (UPI) — A dynamite explosion early today damaged the Midway Elementary School for the second time this month in renewed violence apparently involving an antitextbook dispute in Kanawha County.

The sheriff's department said a stick of dynamite was tossed through a window shortly before 4 a.m., causing an estimated $1,000 damage to school property.

There were no injuries.

Earlier this month a similar explosion was set off at the school.

Police said they were working under the assumption the blast was the work of ban-the-books protesters.

At least 12,000 students were absent from schools Monday at the start of a week-long boycott against so-called immoral textbooks, while antitextbook leaders visited the White House to present their case.

A White House aide set up meetings for three protest leaders with Department of Health, Education and Welfare officials.

The Rev. Ezra Graley and the Rev. Avis Hill, both recently jailed for demonstrating against the new books, planned to lead their delegation today to Capitol meetings with Sens. Jennings Randolph and Robert C. Byrd, both D-W.Va.

The 27.3 per cent absenteeism was the largest since the start of the protest the day after Labor Day.

Opponents of the books have termed them anti-God, antifamily and antigovernment.

Pat Cameron Will Appear At Coffee

Marine Academy Enrolls Planoite

Cadet William R. Sutherland Jr. of Plano has enrolled as a third classman (sophomore) in the Marine Military Academy of Harlingen, Texas. The 16 year old youth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sutherland of 653 W. 16th Street, Apt. 213.

Cadet Sutherland is one of 182 young men enrolling for the 1974-75 academic year in the nation's only U.S. Marine-oriented college preparatory school which provides instruction in grades seven through twelve plus a postgraduate program.

As a member of the Corps of Cadets at the largest boarding school in the state of Texas, he is also that "one extra student" needed to make this year the largest enrollment in the nine year history of the academy. The 182 student enrollment exceeds by "one", last year's record.

Although many of MMA's graduates and postgraduates go on to service academies, many more are included in the ranks of this country's leading universities and colleges. A significant number of these receive full scholarships under one of the military ROTC or Marine Corps PLC programs.

This is Cadet Sutherland's second year at MMA.

Change Sought In Tax Hearings

Bob Bullock, Democratic nominee for Comptroller, said Monday that the Comptroller's office should conduct tax case hearings in its regional headquarters instead of requiring all tax contests to come to Austin.

"It is, in effect, denying many average taxpayers their day in court by making them foot the bill for an attorney and a trip to Austin," Bullock told supporters during a day-long visit to this far corner of Texas.

The Comptroller has regional offices in Lubbock, San Antonio, Dallas and Houston. Besides these cities and Austin, Bullock said, consideration should be given to conducting periodic hearings in El Paso and the Rio Grande Valley.

"If the caseloads can't justify fulltime hearings officers in these offices--and I wouldn't expect them to--we should take a lesson from the good old days and use a circuit rider," Bullock said.

Bullock said that "taking the Comptroller's office to the taxpayers would probably result in more hearings on smaller dollar volume contests--proving that the present system is based on economics instead of justice."

Letters

To The Editor:

So that the citizens of Plano may properly evaluate the situation of the Plano Day Care Center, I think the position of the United Way in regard to this agency should be clarified.

Last year, the Plano Day Care Center was awarded a grant by the United Way. These funds were used to help finance the school during the school year ended May, 1974. This year, the United Way accepted the Center as a member, with the understanding that allocations from the United Way would begin November 1. When the plight of the Center became known, the United Way made an exception to its ordinary procedures and made allocations to the Center in both September and October, or two months before allocations would regularly have begun. This advance allocation made the difference between operating the Center and closing it down.

The allocations from the United Way to this agency were made after careful deliberation and consideration of the United Way's obligation to the nine Plano agencies that receive all funds raised in Plano. The strength of the United Way is its ability to fairly evaluate the programs and budgets of all its agencies and to help the City of Plano.

The Plano Day Care Center will be able to continue its services to the families of Plano through the efforts of the United Way and other interested persons.

Thank you

Dear Editor:

I usually do not get disturbed about the children's toys if they get broken by other children. However, this really bothers me.

Will you please print the attached letter and maybe this person will realize that she did not get away unnoticed.

I can not help feeling this was a deliberate act. Both my children were on the sidewalk crying as she drove away.

Times Must be Hard

To the lady in the blue car that stopped in front of my house, 1716 Laurel Lane, Oct. 18, at 1:15 p.m. and picked up the basketball that rolled into the street that my two daughters age 3 and 5 were playing with.

I hope you enjoy the ball as much as my children have. If you get tired of playing with it, please drive by and leave it in the front yard.

Times must be hard if an adult can stop in front of someone's home and while small children look on pick up their toy and drive off.

Dear Editor:

The Camp Fire Council of Metropolitan Dallas, a United Way agency, wishes to thank you for your cooperation in publicizing our efforts to increase our membership this year.

We feel that our fall organizational campaign, conducted for the fourth consecutive year, was once again successful. We added at least 2,851 girls to our program, and we were able to extend the Camp Fire program to girls in previously unserved areas.

Camp Fire's continued growth is so greatly dependent upon the kind of community support you so generously gave us, and we are certainly grateful. Only with your help can we keep Dallas area youth and adults aware of Camp Fire activities and opportunities.

Sincerely,

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Try not to jump to instant conclusions. Wait until you have all the facts in hand. A situation that at first looks shaky is basically stable.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Your first thoughts regarding your work are not your best. After you take time to think things through you'll get your answers.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) You will be a bit reluctant to take advantage of an invitation you'll be getting. You shouldn't be. There are surprises in store if you go.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) You will derive much more enjoyment from today if you select a pleasant companion to share things with. Don't be a loner.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) One who has your ear often influences you more than she should. Weigh what is discussed then make up your mind.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) A transaction you are concerned with has taken a turn that will make it more profitable to you — provided you use a little more imagination.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) The next few days your social activities promise more than just a pleasant way to spend time. Something of substance will result through new contacts.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You will find that you have all the time and interest you need now to tend to two domestic matters you've been sweeping under the rug.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) A plan you have will be improved upon after you discuss it with a friend. You'll be offered a twist that hasn't occurred to you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Over the next few days you're likely to be rewarded more generously than usual for your accomplishments. This is no time to slack off.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) There will be some confusion in your affairs early in the day. It's nothing that can't be handled. By later afternoon you'll be on course.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) What at first appears to be the solution to a problem will not work out. However, the problem will be solved for you in quite an unexpected manner.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Lingering guests need a boot

By Polly Cramer

Polly's Problem

DEAR POLLY — I would be most grateful for some suggestions for displaying a collection of souvenir match books. Also is it necessary to remove the matches from the covers? — HELEN.

DEAR POLLY — My Pet Peeve is with guests who finish their visit, prepare to leave, get to the door and then think of something else to talk about and stand in the open door. In winter they let so much cold air into the house it is chilled throughout. It seems to me that people could say what they have to say while everyone is comfortably seated inside rather than wait and finish their conversation standing in the doorway. — MRS.A.D.N.

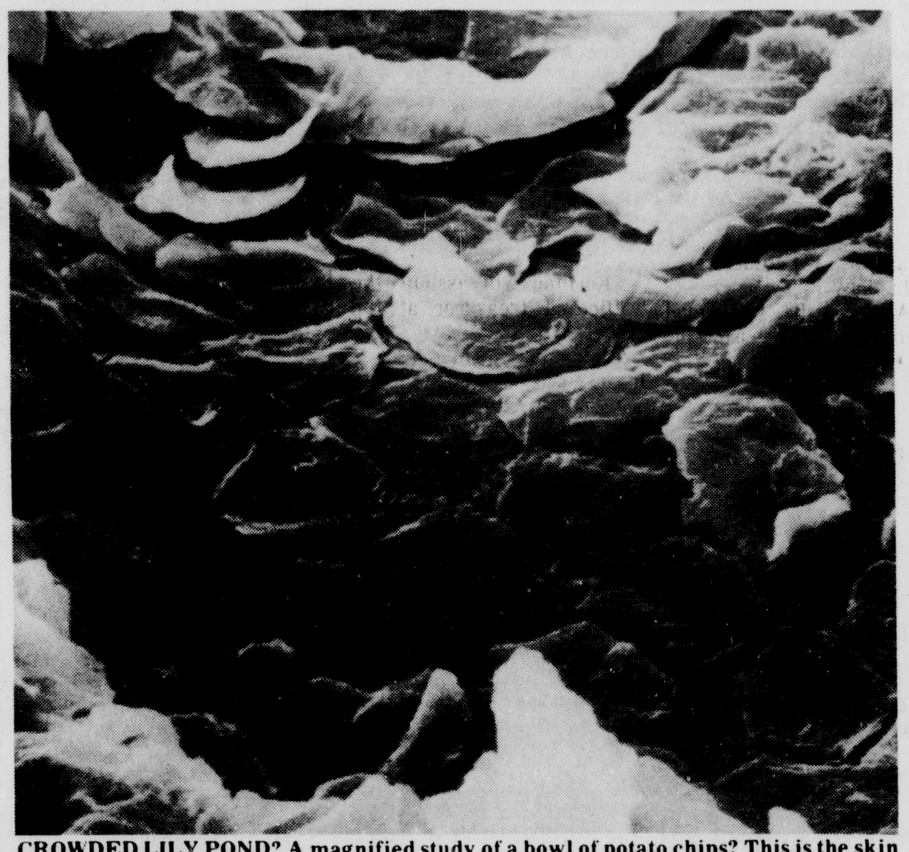
DEAR POLLY — Like Mrs. J.W.W. I, too, think it is a shame to see masses of flowers taken to the cemetery after a funeral and left to die and be thrown away so quickly. After services for my son the two red, white and blue bouquets (to match the flag on the coffin) from the immediate family were the only flowers taken to place on the grave. Two others were saved for our church services the next day and the remainder taken to a local hospital and a home for the elderly. On such a dark day it is a comfort to know you have brightened up a corner for the living. — MRS.A.R.B.

DEAR POLLY — When my wife died we decided to let it be known that those who preferred could contribute to an educational fund being established at our church to help needy students. They agree to repay the loan with 5 percent interest after the education is completed so it goes on and on. My wife's memory is perpetuated and the fund will make many a successful career possible. — M.J.H.

DEAR POLLY and Mrs. J.W.W. — In lieu of sending flowers to a funeral many in our town make memorial contributions to our library with a book or books selected by the donor or the librarian. She sends a card of acknowledgment to the bereaved family and also enters the name of the donor in a beautiful Memory book kept on display in the library. — MRS.S.M.

DEAR POLLY — Mrs.J.W.W.'s letter about the over-abundance of flowers sent to most funerals appeared in our paper just the day after I had been to the funeral of a young police officer. The room bulged with flowers and I thought how nice if the funeral directors would only allow a certain number and provide small envelopes for others to make contributions amounting to the cost of flowers and let the family do with it as they wanted. At this funeral I stopped counting at 90 bouquets. With the cost of living (and dying) going up and up it would have been wonderful if this young widow with three children had received, say, $15 for each bouquet over the first 20 and in this case that would have been over a thousand dollars which I am sure she could have put to good use. — MRS.B.K.

You will receive a dollar if Polly uses your favorite home-making idea, Pet Peeve, Polly's Problem or solution to a problem. Write Polly in care of this newspaper.



CROWDED LILY POND? A magnified study of a bowl of potato chips? This is the skin covering a human fingertip photographed at 1,000 X magnification by Eastman Kodak scientists using a scanning electron microscope. Kodak employes were asked to rinse their hands with distilled water after which scientists analyzed the water. Lab tests revealed men and women carried 36 different elements on their fingertips, some of them precious. Found were minute traces of gold, silver, mercury, cadmium, boron and arsenic.

Bruce Nist Seeks 'Playmate'

'Sir-Lady Frothingslosh' Also In Demand

By POHLA SMITH

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — If you've got an empty "Playmate" malt liquor can lying aroung, please give Bruce Nist a call.

And if there's a 1955 vintage "Sir-Lady Frothingslosh" beer can in your basement, Jim Cyphers might be willing to give you 30 or 40 empties for it.

The "Playmate" can once made by the now defunct Sunshine Brewing Co. of Reading, Pa., is just what Nist needs to top off his collection of 1,950 beer cans. The light blue container bearing a woman's lips and legs is a classic.

And Iron City Brewing Co.'s 1955 "Frothingslosh"—picturing former Pittsburgh radio personality Rege Cordic in zany male and female getups — would complement Cypher's rare "Lederbrau one half gallon can," his 1955 8 oz. "Tech" and his 1950 "Tube City" conetop.

Nist, 23, a computer operator, and Cyphers, 24, a fast-food restaurant manager, are respectively secreatry and president of the Old Frothingslosh Chapter of the Beer Can Collectors of America.

The BCCA, a 3,000 member group, is dedicated to preserving and collecting obsolete, unusual, historical, attractive— in fact any and all kinds of— beer cans.

The members spend a lot of time and energy trading through the mails, picking up cans on vacations and attending BCCA trading sessions. Recently people from as far as South Carolina, Illinois and Massachusetts drove here for a swap session, and both Cyphers and Nist have traveled as far as Detroit in pursuit of their hobby.

Unlike stamp or coin collectors, BCCA members are not interested in making money. Organization bylaws forbid members from buying or selling empties, although they do buy full cans.

"The lack of money makes it a lot more relaxed and friendly," said Bill Whitworth, who drove from Wayne, Mich., to attend the Pittsburgh tradein.

"My main hobby is collecting license plates—I've got about 15,000 of them—but I'm getting into beer cans more these days. With license plates everyone is in it for the dollar."

Whitworth kind of fell into his hobby, salvaging several hundred cans his uncle was throwing out.

"You see, my aunt was filing for divorce at the time and she was trying to prove he was crazy, so he thought it would look better for him if he got rid of the cans;" he said.

Nist said he started his hobby because he wanted to do something different from people on his street.

"I used to collect stamps and coins, but there's too many people into that. So I got this idea," he said.

"I just noticed all the different kinds you could buy and I started getting one of each. I was going to put them on our fireplace, but there got to be so many I had to start building shelves to put them on."

Cyphers, who has 2,900 different styles among the 7,000 cans stacked, shelved and boxed in an extra bedroom of his home, sees several reasons for his unusual hobby.

"One is the beauty of the cans and their easy displayability," he said. "And I think another thing is just because there's beer cans all around.

"And I think the other thing is the pleasure of trying out all the beers as you collect the cans... although there are a few people in the group who don't drink the beer."

The hobby, he said, does have one drawback.

"The problem is," Cyphers said, "the most collectable cans are the ones with the worst beer."

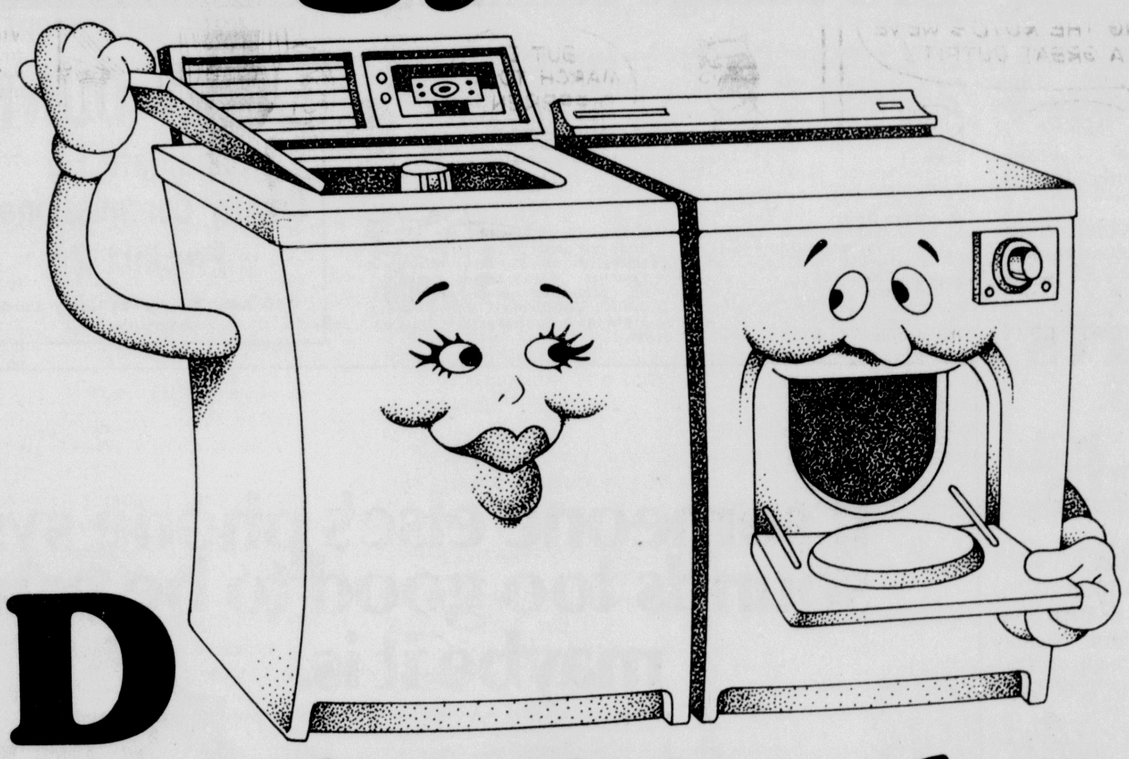
Reducing plan for energy users



Plan D
How to save electricity when using washers and dryers

1. Choose proper wash cycle. ("Hot" setting isn't necessary with most modern fabrics.)
2. Use long wash cycle only with full laundry load.
3. If washer has water level control, choose level to match load size. (Saves hot water and energy used to heat it.)
4. Clean dryer's lint filter after each load to help dryer efficiency and reduce drying time.
5. Don't overdry clothes. Set timer according to garment's fiber content.
6. Sort clothes for drying by weight and texture of fabric to avoid extra run-time for 2 or 3 slow-dry items.
7. Vent dryer to outside to prevent indoor moisture build-up. Follow manufacturer's operating instructions carefully.

Conserve electricity and you help conserve one or more of the fuels needed to produce it: natural gas, coal and oil. Conserve fuels and you help assure that there will be enough to meet essential needs for electricity in the future.

When you pass a TP&L office, warehouse, generating plant or other facility, you'll see that we've turned off all non-essential lighting. And, in as many other ways as possible, TP&L is reducing its own uses of electricity.

If you would like additional information on conserving electricity, call or see the Customer Service Representative in the TP&L Office.

Plano, Turner Still Tied

Both Teams 3-0 in 13-AAAA Loop Play

Plano Wildcats and R.L. Turner Lions remained tied for District 13-AAAA's lead with both teams winning their respective loop games last Friday night.

Plano beat Denison's Yellowjackets 28-7 and R.L. Turner downed Lewisville 7-2. Both teams now post 3-0 district records, with Plano taking the edge on overall wins with a 6-0 mark compared to Turner's 4-2 record.

The Plano Wildcats, state-ranked fourth in AAAA, rolled over the Yellowjackets with pass and running plays. Early in the first quarter, Plano scored on halfback Tony Wallis' nine-yard run. Wes Hansen added the soccer-style PAT point, his first of four.

Plano followed with two second quarter scores. Mark Randolph latched onto a 20-yard pass from Sammy Bickham Jr. for score number two. The Wildcats third score was a 14-yard run by quarterback Bickham.

In the third quarter, Mike Loggins, fullback, broke loose 38-yards to score. Denison's touchdown came late in the fourth quarter on a Tim Bennitt three-yard run.

R.L. Turner held back Lewisville scoring attempts to win 7-2. Turner scored in the first quarter on a Buddy Nelson one-yard run. The score climaxed a 72-yard drive on eight plays. Noble Hansard added the PAT.

Lewisville, hampered by the lack of Paul Rice who was injured in the game, scored in the second quarter when Zachary Taylor trapped Turner QB Nelson in the endzone following a Lewisville fumble.

Denton topped Sherman's Bearcats 27-7. Denton got on the scoreboard first on a five-yard pass from Tim Woosley to Tony Castle. In the fourth quarter Sherman got their score on a Randy Wessinger one-yard run. With David Huntsman adding the PAT, the Bearcats took a 7-6 lead.

However, Denton came back with back to back scores. Jeff Richards ran three-yards for a TD and Tony Castle plunged two-yards for another TD.

Following the first score, Denton got the two-point PAT on a pass from Woosley to Laney Lackhart. Bryant Bomar kicked the PAT following Castle's fourth quarter TD.

Greenville scored twice in the third quarter to beat Paris 13-7. Paris scored first in the game on a Chris Bailey three-yard run. David Johnson added the PAT.

In the third quarter, Mike Nedham broke loose 51-yards to score with Louis Morquecho adding the PAT.

Plano and Turner are expect to meet to decide the 13-AAAA championship in Plano's homecoming Nov. 1. Plano plays Sherman and R.L. Turner plays Denison, both teams heavy favorites to win.

Entering the Nov. 1 game, both teams will probably be posting 4-0 loop records.

Ohio State Unanimous No. 1

College Coaches Agree First Time This Season

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Buckeyes of Ohio State, picked by an increasingly larger number of coaches in the UPI Major College Football Ratings Board as the number one team in the nation all year long, won that selection unanimously in the sixth week of ratings.

Woody Hayes' gridders have been No. 1 since the preseason ratings, but each week some coaches felt that another team was better.

Not any more.

All 35 coaches on the UPI Board tabbed Ohio State as the best for a perfect 350 points after the Buckeyes destroyed Indiana 49-9 for a spotless 6-0 record. Ohio State has rolled up 256 points, better than a 42 points-per-game average, while only allowing 60 points, or 10 a game.

Michigan, which faces Ohio State at Columbus Nov. 23 in a game likely to decide the final No. 1 ranking, Alabama and Auburn—which play at Birmingham, Ala. Nov. 29— remained in the second through fourth positions.

Each of the three won, also bringing their records to 6-0, but only the Crimson Tide won impressively. Michigan eked out a 24-20 win at Wisconsin and Auburn held off Georgia Tech at home, 31-22. Alabama, however, disposed of Tennessee 28-6.

Southern California, fifth last week, tied Notre Dame, seventh last week, for the No. 5 spot as the Trojans defeated a surprisingly tough Oregon squad at Eugene, Ore., 16-7, while the Irish shut out Army at South Bend, 48-0.

With Notre Dame's rise, Texas A and M fell one notch to seventh despite a 17-0 shuotut over Texas Christian.

Penn State, a 30-14 winner over Syracuse, rose one position to eighth as North Carolina State, eighth last week, was blown out by North Carolina 33-14 and dropped out of the top 20.

Nebraska also took advantage of the Wolfpack's loss, jumping from 14th to 9th. The Cornhuskers blew Kansas away at the Jayhawks' home field, 56-0, dropping Kansas from 11th out of the top 20.

Texas, a 38-7 winner over Arkansas, was the week's biggest ratings climber, leaping from a tie for 20th to the No. 10 spot to replace Arizona, which lost its first game of the season to Texas Tech, 17-8.

Florida headed the second 10, followed by Maryland, Miami (Fla.), Arizona, Texas Tech, Miami (Ohio), Arizona State in No. 17 and Tulane, Oklahoma State, Mississippi State and San Diego State in a four-way tie for 18th.

MARQUES JOHNSON ILL

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Marques Johnson, UCLA's promising sophomore forward on the basketball team, has been hospitalized for tests concerning an illness which doctors feel "may be hepatitis," a team spokesman said Monday.

Johnson, expected to start this season after being a part-time starter on John Wooden's Bruin team a year ago, entered the UCLA Medical Center last Thursday when he was "feeling pretty sick," the spokesman said.

"Doctors have indicated it may be hepatitis," the spokesman added.

Which is fine.

Pokes Have 'Till 3 p.m. Today To Dispose of Veteran QB

Morton Demands Trade

DALLAS (UPI) — The Dallas Cowboys have until to 3 p.m. today to try to trade veteran quarterback Craig Morton, who refused to practice Monday and demanded to be traded.

"I'm just not playing and it's obvious they're not going to play me," Morton said. "I'm not contributing anything and I can't see just standing around. The trading deadline is coming up so I wanted to see what might happen."

Morton, 31, quarterbacked the Cowboys after the retirement of Don Meredith and was the starter in Dallas' 16-13 loss to Baltimore in the 1970 Super Bowl. Roger Staubach took over the starting job in 1971 and led Dallas to a Super Bowl win over Miami.

Morton last year grew unhappy with his backup status and demanded to be traded and the Cowboys management promised to comply if they could get a player of worth in return. No trade was made and Morton signed with the WFL Houston Texans who subsequently moved to Shreveport, La. It is not known if Morton's WFL contract is still valid because of the franchise transfer. He was playing out his option with Dallas this season.

"It didn't surprise me," coach Tom Landry said of Morton's decision Monday. "He had said before he wanted to be traded. Craig didn't tell me this but I would imagine the Houston developments had something to do with him wanting to go now rather than to wait until after the season.

"If he was sure the Houston deal was waiting for him, I think he'd have gone ahead and played out the season with us. Sure I hate to see him go but if he doesn't want to play for us he'd be better off somewhere else."

The Cowboys said they did not know what action would be taken if a Morton trade could not be worked out.

Linebacker Rodrigo Barnes Monday informed the Cowboys he was going to have knee surgery at the recommendation of his personal physician. Barnes, a second-year pro from Rice, left the team last week in a disagreement over salary and playing time. He was in line to take over the middle linebacker for veteran Lee Roy Jordan as early as next year.

The Cowboys said they would try to trade Barnes.

Why Do People Fish?

By JACK WOLISTON

NEW YORK (UPI) — From the ditty bag:

—Why do people fish? The Canadian Department of Environment questioned almost 1,300 salmon fishermen along the coast of British Columbia and discovered that the number one reason was: To be outdoors. No. 2 reason was to take it easy and get rid of tension, and No. 3 was to eat fresh fish. Other reasons given, in order of importance: Change from working pressures, the experience of a catch, to take family and-or friends out, change from home pressures, to do something different, solitude.

—Ever wonder why girls' names are tagged onto hurricanes? One of the main reasons is that names, in written as well as in spoken communications, are shorter, quicker, and less subject to error than the older more cumbersome latitude-longitude identification methods. The Department of Commerce says these advantages are especially important in exchanging detailed storm information between hundreds of widely scattered stations, airports, coastal bases, and ships at sea. It's especially helpful when two or more tropical storms occur at the same time.

—The offshore powerboat racing season isn't over yet, but the international and U.S. titles are already locked up. Dr. Carlo Bonomi of Como, Italy, has amassed enough points to assure him the international title for the second straight year, and Art "Snapper" Norris, 23-year-old vice president of the Detroit Red Wing hockey team, has an unbeateable lead for the U.S. honor.

—The deep-vee hulls such as the Cigarette and Magnum have dominated offshore racing in recent years, but in the recent San Francisco offshore powerboat race Paul Cook of Atherton, Calif., won it with a 35-foot tunnel hull from the boards of California designer Ron Jones. Cook's Kudu II, with a 496 c.i. MerCruiser engine in each of its pontoons, set a new U.S. race course record of 79.2 m.p.h. in the 156-mile race. Cook said that at one time he reached a speed of 93 m.p.h. but throttled back so as not to blow an engine.

—When leaving a boat at pier, mooring or in the boatyard this winter, avoid destructive mildew by leaving a hatch or port slightly open and placing Silica gel or calcium chloride, which remove moisture from the air, in unventilated cabin storage areas. There are a number of common household products, such as Scott's Liquid Gold, that can be sprayed on interior surfaces to inhibit mildew.

—The Boat Owners Association of the U.S. reports that plastic bags and sandwich wrappers carelessly thrown overboard are proving to be a real hazard to boatmen. The plastic is sucked against the engine intake.

—The New England Atlantic Salmon Restoration Conference, sponsored by the International Atlantic Salmon Foundation, will meet Jan. 14-16 in Boston.

Ali's Mouth Expected To Boost Fight Tickets

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI)--Muhammad Ali was back at the old stand Monday thumping the closed circuit TV drums for his heavyweight title fight with George Foreman.

The occasion was a closed circuit "press conference," set up by the promoters of the fight, and seen in New York. It turned out to be a monologue by Ali inasmuch as Foreman, the champion, did not show up.

Why? Listen to this.

The promoters quoted Foreman as saying he wouldn't show up for the conference because "if I did, the fight would be held today." That's the stuff the managers of the closed circuit TV theaters want to hear. They're selling tickets at $12 to $20 a head and they need a "good guy" and a "bad guy." In this promotion, Ali is the "good guy" and Foreman the "bad guy."

There's only one hitch.

You can listen to Ali tell how he's going to "float like a butterfly and sting like a bee." ... open up that phantom cut over Foreman's eye...dance him to death, etc. Ali is great. Only thing is that in this case, to believe him you can't have Monster Man George Foreman glaring at you while Ali is talking...Because, then, you just don't believe Ali is going to do all those terrible things to Foreman..and, therefore, you don't buy closed circuit theater TV tickets.

So, the Monster Man wasn't there to remind listeners that he is a 6-foot, 4-inch, 220-pound mastadon of a man who could end the fight in two minutes — just as he disposed of Joe Frazier in less than two rounds.

That left the stage to Ali and he's never better than when he's alone on it.

A few samples from his rambling dialogue —always remembering that the idea that, in order to sell closed circuit TV tickets, you must convince the public that it is going to be a contest:

"I plan to retire as soon as I win...there won't be no lose... I'll float like a butterfly and sting like a bee..Foreman is doing everything to get out of the fight but on Oct. 30 he won't be able to get out of it... Foreman better be ready to dance...When that little man faces me I'm gonna cut him up...in the first round...the first round... I'm gonna cut him..the man has no skill, no class, no rhythm, no footwork..he's a gangster...a barroom fighter...I will stop this man either on bruises or cuts or whip him into total submission."

There was more..much, much more..as they say in the advertisements.. as Ali plied the trade of selling closed circuit TV tickets.

There's going to more in Zaire, Oct. 30, too.

There's going to be George Foreman in the ring.

Football Contest Winners

Never before in the Star-Courier football contest has the tiebreaker been used more to decide the second and third place winners.

Inge Ballard of 1629 Japonica Lane was the clearcut contest winner, missing four games, and the only entrant to win hands down this week. Mrs. Ballard will receive $25 for her efforts.

Second place was a tie between Lynn and Owena Sutton. The Suttons of Richardson each submitted separate entry forms, each missed five games, and each predicted the exact tiebreaker score of the Dallas - Philadelphia game, 31-24.

Because contest rules stipulate that only one member of a family may win in the contest each week, the Suttons will have to split the second place prize money of $15.

Third place, also each five missed games but picking the exact game point spread on the tiebreaker, was Lori Stone of 2508 Creekcove of Plano. Lori edged many other entrants with her tiebreaker spread of seven points. Many other contestants also predicted seven points spreads on the tiebreaker, however, Lori's was closer to the actual score. Miss Stone will receive $10.

Consumer Prices Continue Climb

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Higher prices—primarily for food, clothing and mortgage interest—pushed the Consumer Price Index up 1.2 per cent in September, the Labor Department reported today. The index was 12.1 per cent higher than a year ago.

The index stood at 151.9, meaning goods and services that cost $100 in 1967 cost $151.90 last month. It was 1.2 per cent higher than in August on a seasonally adjusted basis and 1.1 per cent on an unadjusted basis.

Prices that usually go down in September—such as automobile prices which decline at the end of the model year— increased instead. Food prices also usually decline in September but went up 1.4 per cent on an unadjusted basis.

The 12-month figure of 12.1 per cent was the highest annual rate since 1947.

Wholesale prices last month declined slightly but the drop was not mirrored in the consumer prices.

In other recently released surveys, the nation's inflation rate measured by the Gross National Product was 11.5 per cent and measured by wholesale price indexes was 19.7 per cent.

The government also reported that because of an increase in average hourly earnings and a rise in average weekly hours real gross average weekly earnings rose 0.2 per cent in September. However, real average weekly earnings were down 4.5 per cent and after deductions of Social Security and federal income taxes spendable earnings were down 5.2 per cent from a year ago.

Prices were higher for beef, pork and poultry and continued to increase for eggs, cereal and bakery products, processed fruits and vegetables and sugar and sweets. Prices for restaurant meals and snacks rose 0.7 per cent.

Dairy prices were up for the first time in four months.

Higher prices were also reported for apparel commodities, houses, house furnishings, housekeeping supplies, toilet goods, reading materials and alcoholic beverages.

Gasoline prices declined but the prices for utilities—gas, electricity and telephone—rose in September.

The cost of medical care services rose 1 per cent in September. There were also higher charges for auto repairs, dry cleaning, shoe repairs, hair-cuts and college tuition.

The average price for regular grade gasoline went down 0.7 per cent to 55 cents a gallon in September; premium gasoline went down 0.6 per cent to 58.7 cents per gallon.

The government's payroll data for production workers in private industry showed that the gross average hourly earnings for September were $4.32. Gross average weekly earnings for these workers was $159.41 and after adjustment for taxes a worker with three dependents was left with average spendable earnings of $138.19. The spendable average weekly earnings for a worker with no dependents was $127.63.

FOOTBALL CONTEST

GO WILDCATS . . .

Beat Sherman!!

FIRST PRIZE $25.00

SECOND PRIZE $15.00

THIRD PRIZE $10.00

CONTEST RULES

Listed at the bottom of each advertisement on this page are games to be played during the coming weekend. Using the accompanying entry blank or a reasonable fascimile, list the team which you believe will win that game by the corresponding numbers. If you believe that game will be a tie, write tie in the blank instead of the name of either team. In the separate "Tie Breaker" game you must predict a score of that game. The tiebreaker is used only if there is a tie in the regular contest. One entry per contestant may be submitted, however, each member of a family may enter. Only one member of a family may win in any given contest. Submitting an entry is agreement that all decisions of the judges is final. When using a reasonable fascimile, entry blanks may not be machine reproduced. Only hand drawn blanks depicting the original blank are acceptable. All entries become the property of the Plano Daily Star-Courier and will not be returned. Entries must be received in the Star-Courier or be postmarked by 3 p.m. Friday preceeding the weekend of the games. Winners will be announced in the following Tuesday's Star-Courier.
